

Art / Arte

L'Ambassade du Brésil à Bruxelles ne peut être tenue pour responsable du contenu des sites Internet ou publications externes qui sont présentés dans cette section.

FUNARTE

The National Art Foundation (Fundação Nacional de Arte - FUNARTE) is a government body that promotes and administers funding for all art forms, from opera, classical music and ballet to folkloric dance, circus and regional crafts. [pt]

Site: <http://www.funarte.gov.br>

IPHAN

The Instituto do Patrimônio Histórico e Artístico Nacional (IPHAN) works in partnership with government bodies, business and civil society in the discussion and formulation of guidelines, policies and funding for a programme to identify, protect, restore and preserve national historic buildings, monuments and sites. [pt]

Site: <http://www.iphan.gov.br>

ITAÚ CULTURAL - ENCYCLOPAEDIA OF VISUAL ARTS

The Itaú Cultural Encyclopaedia of the Visual Arts is a reference source comprising over 3,000 entries and 12,000 pictures. It contains articles on Brazilian visual arts along with information on individual artists and collections. [en]

Site: http://www.itaucultural.org.br/aplicexternas/enciclopedia_ic

SÃO PAULO MUSEUM OF MODERN ART

Founded in 1948 by the Italo-Brazilian entrepreneur Francisco Matarazzo, the São Paulo Museum of Modern Art (Museu de Arte Moderna - MAM) was one of South America's first modern art museums. It is situated in Ibirapuera Park in the centre of São Paulo. [en]

Site: <http://www.mam.org.br>