

Littérature / Literatura

L'Ambassade du Brésil à Bruxelles ne peut être tenue pour responsable du contenu des sites Internet ou publications externes qui sont présentés dans cette section.

3:AM MAGAZINE BRASIL [pt]

Launched in 2007, 3:AM Brasil is the Portuguese language edition of the 3:AM Magazine website, one of the first literary journals on the internet. 3:AM Brasil promotes new writing from Brazil in the fields of fiction, literary criticism, poetry, opinion and cultural discussion.

Site: <http://www.3ammagazine.com/brasil>

BRAZILIAN NATIONAL LIBRARY

The National Library of Brazil is the largest in Latin America. It was founded in 1808 with the collections of the Portuguese Royal Library. It preserves a collection of approximately 9 million items, including books, stamps, illustrations, manuscripts, maps and audiovisual materials.

Site: <http://www.bn.br>

DOMÍNIO PÚBLICO [pt]

Funded by the Brazilian federal government, Domínio Público is an extremely wide-ranging database of public-domain digital documents, that has been developed with the use of open-source software.

Site: <http://www.dominiopublico.gov.br>

INTERNATIONAL LITERARY FESTIVAL OF PARATI

The Festa Literária Internacional de Parati (FLIP) is the most important annual literary festival in Brazil. It takes place in July in the town of Parati in the state of Rio de Janeiro.

Site: <http://www.flip.org.br>

JORGE AMADO FOUNDATION

Official website of the Jorge Amado Foundation. Jorge Amado (1912-2001) was a Brazilian writer of the Modernist school.

Site: <http://www.fundacaojorgeamado.com.br/fran/>

PAULO COELHO

Official website of the world-famous Brazilian writer Paulo Coelho.

Site: <http://www.paulocoelho.com/fran/>

WIKIPEDIA - LITERATURE OF BRAZIL

Wikipedia, the free online encyclopedia, has a page on Brazilian Literature with links to many authors and external websites.

Site: http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Literature\_of\_Brazil